

Activities / Offers for Adult Visitors

Family Sundays

social and shared learning based on the interaction of the family members improvement of family ties - bridging the generations

- sharing experiences
- spending time together
- sharing pedagogically valuable actions subjects so far:

paper making Felting medieval games fairy tales and stories spending a day at a knight's castle creative work with beeswax and candles carving Jack o'Lanterns for halloween interactive reenactments – „Living History“

- adult learners are independent and self-paced
- an ideal learning concept would require an easy orientation within the variety of the offered projects
- possibility of an active involvement with regard to the learning process.
- active and discovering approach the offers of our living history groups: a broad range of the middle ages

- living conditions / everyday activities / nutrition
- typical garments and robes, medieval armour and arms
- display of finds, written sources and figures
- crafts: blacksmith, ropemaker, leatherworker, soap boiler, bone carver, turner, whitesmith
- textile processing: spinning, tailoring, sewing, braiding, dyeing

special events

- falconry – then and now (things to know about falconry, falconry shows with different raptors)
- european batnight (co-operation with NABU –German Nature and Biodiversity Conservation Union)
- forging training course
- dyeing courses
- textile courses (partly with various universities of education)
- special guided tours (carpenter, garments and robes)
- crafts days